Linda,

In February , my client was advised that she as at risk of losing a major account. This company represented 80% of her business. She went into immediate panic.

Because of her strong dependence on this account, she had never used any marketing materials and barely had a business card. While she recognized the need to create a marketing plan, she had no idea where to start.

You previously helped my company with a mailer card, so I suggested she contact you. You designed a gorgeous card for her to leave behind and sent a quote for a super simple trade show package.

Since March she has been making marketing phone calls, dropping in to visit her existing client base and has a major trade show scheduled in September. Her cards alone make a tremendous impact. Her efforts combined with sharp materials are proving fruitful and she has recognized an immediate return.

Thank you for your quick service, professional products and reasonable pricing. You make businesskeeping easy!
